

Girl Scouts Hold County-wide Rally At State Armory

Walkill Troop Wins Flag and Music for Two More Years to Retain It—Drive Now Under Way to Secure Modest Sum for Work in County and at Camp Wendy.

One hundred fifty-five Girl Scouts of Ulster county participated in the county rally at the state armory yesterday. In addition to their inter-county program there were splendid exhibits of home making work by several county troops, games were played, prizes awarded and a general good time enjoyed. Besides Commissioner Marion Borden, Miss Mabel Hanson, director of Camp Wendy; Mrs. E. H. Bogart, deputy commissioner; Mrs. Joseph E. Van Derveer, secretary; Councilman Mrs. Gerard A. Betz, and others were present.

The day opened with a brief Scout ceremony including saluting the flag. In the morning the Scouts from Walkill, New Paltz, Ellenville, Saugerties, Highland and Kingston set up their exhibits and showed much cleverness and sense of the fitness of things in the arrangements of their exhibits. Needlework, including some elaborate embroidery, garment making, etc. Then there was some neatly stitched leather-work as well as crocheted work purses, bead bags, paintings, baskets, tie-and-dye lunch-cups, etc., and some very appetizing cookery.

During the forenoon a number of Boy Scouts with Scout Executive Smith gave an exhibition of Scout stunts and Executive Smith expressed his desire of the Boy Scouts of the county to cooperate with and support the efforts of their sister Girl Scouts.

It was a busy morning for the judges of the girls' exhibits in home-making, Mrs. Bond, Mrs. Lawton and Miss Burgett, and the points upon the troop showings were judged were the following: Excellence of the display, quality, variety, proportion—that is, the number of girls in a troop exhibiting. The prize, given by Scout Commissioner Borden, was a silk sash and a flag which went to the troop having the highest rating. Any troop securing the flag for three consecutive years will have it for their own at the expiration of that time.

During the noon hour the girls enjoyed a picnic lunch in the armory and had a glorious time together.

Afternoon Program.

The afternoon program included two pretty folk dances given by the New Paltz Scouts, followed by the Ellenville Scouts, Troop 1, giving a picturesque Russian dance and a lively jazz dance. Then Saugerties Troop gave a clever little presentation of "Aladdin and His Lamp," while Saugerties Troop 2 presented a gay Spanish dance with a very clever little solo dancer. Highland's part in the program was the lively and quite complicated game of "Pop Goes the Weasel," followed by "The Bachelor Chooses a Wife." The program closed with Ellenville Troop 2 giving a dance, "Annabelle Lee," and a Troop song of their own composing.

Miss Shannon had charge of the program which was followed by the playing of games which had the added fun of everybody playing on the great drill shed floor of the armory.

Prizes Awarded.

Then came the minute of suspense when the prize was awarded, the records for three highest being as follows:

Jewish Center (Troop 2, Kingston)	3

Plans for Camp Wendy.

In presenting the handsome flag, Commissioner Borden expressed pleasure that her home town troop had done such excellent work as to win the flag and congratulated the girls upon their accomplishment. She also spoke about Camp Wendy for this summer. This remarkably fine Girl Scout camp, beautifully situated at Walkill and operated with marked efficiency and success as well as notable for its spirit de corps, will be open for eight weeks this summer—July and August—and it will be possible to take care of 30 girls each week. In addition to the remarkably competent director, Miss Shannon, and her staff, there will be two extra counselors. As there promises to be a very large attendance this summer Miss Borden urged the girls who really wanted to attend Camp Wendy to register as soon as possible, and all communications relative to the camp should be addressed before June 25 to Miss Shannon, Camp Director, 376 North Maple Avenue, Ridgewood, N. J.

The happy day closed with the formation of the big circle of all the Girl Scouts and the farewell salute to the day and each other.

Morrow Returns Home for Wedding

Ambassador to Mexico Rejoins Family at Englewood Estate—Date of Daughter's Marriage to Lindbergh Not Announced.

Englewood, N. J., May 27 (P).—Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow and his family were gathered at the Morrow estate here today in preparation for the wedding of his daughter, Miss Anne, to Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh. The date is yet to be announced. Newspaper guesses have set the event for mid-June.

When the Ambassador arrived home yesterday on vacation from Mexico City he smilingly declined to divulge any information. He would not discuss reports that Plutarco Elias Calles, who was President of Mexico when Lindbergh first met the Morrrows, would attend the wedding.

Mrs. Morrow and their youngest daughter, Constance, met Mr. Morrow at the train at Newark yesterday. The Ambassador posed for photographers and the party then drove home. Shortly after their arrival a string of limousines passed through the wall of mystery maintained about the Morrow estate by the Englewood police.

Presently Colonel Lindbergh and his mother, Mrs. Evangeline Lindbergh, drove up in the Colonel's car, and soon afterward came an unidentified clergyman and four other men. Colonel Lindbergh and his mother left two hours later.

Invitations to the wedding already have been ordered. Approximately 1,000 will be mailed to prominent persons in the United States and Mexico.

Girl Died of Fractured Skull

Lillian Lytle, 8 Year Old Daughter of John J. Lytle, Died at Kingston Hospital of Injuries Received When Struck by Automobile.

Lillian, the 8 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Lytle of 102 Cedar street, died at the Kingston Hospital late Saturday afternoon of injuries sustained when struck Thursday evening by an automobile driven by George E. Walter of 176 Elmendorf street. The child was rushed to the hospital in an unconscious condition and died of a fracture of the skull.

In reporting the accident to the police Mr. Walter said the little girl had run across the road directly in front of his car.

Mr. Lytle, father of the dead girl, claims that the girl had been playing and had been called by her mother, who was leaning out of a window. The child responded to her mother's call, and asked her mother if she could return and play with the other children. Her mother said she could and the girl had started to cross the street when struck by the automobile. Mr. Lytle claims that the auto was being driven at an excessive speed on the wrong side of the street and that the girl when struck was carried fifteen feet before her body fell from the fender of the car to the road.

Funeral services for the girl will be held from the family residence, 102 Cedar street, on Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock and at the Holy Cross Church at 10 o'clock. Interment in the family plot in Wiltwyck cemetery.

Reception for Pastor Leach

The congregation of Trinity M. E. Church will hold a reception for the new pastor, the Rev. James A. Leach, and his family this evening in the lecture room of the church at eight o'clock. The ladies of the church have prepared a pleasing program and it is hoped that a good many of the congregation will be present to greet the pastor and his family.

Building Sites Near Reservoir.

The Reservoir Holding Corporation, which owns 650 acres of land adjacent to the Ashokan Reservoir, held a meeting in New York city last week and decided to sell the property. Edwin Burhans of West Hurley was appointed to sell the property, which comprises fine building sites overlooking the reservoir.

drive on hand for the supporting of the Ulster County Girl Scout work, in which Commissioner Borden is asking for contributions of $1 or more if the contributor wishes to give more. There are two outstanding objectives to this drive: helping to maintain and operate Camp Wendy for the girls who will gain so greatly from having such a vacation as can be theirs at the camp, and the other equally important to the girls of Ulster county, and that is a paid and all-year-round Girl Scout executive. With such an executive to train leaders and keep up the interest in Scouting, which by the way was shown on Saturday in the home making exhibits to be anything but a training in Tom-boyishness of girls as sometimes has been the accusation, many more active troops could be formed in Kingston and in Ulster county outside of Kingston.

Judge Clearwater Suggests Plan for City Hall Opening

Suggests That a Pamphlet be Printed and Distributed to Visitors at Formal Opening of New City Hall—Oratory Not Needed—Suggestion for Tablet in Aldermanic Chamber.

Complying with the wish expressed by the committee having in charge the formal opening of the reconstructed city hall, Judge A. T. Clearwater, city historian, has written the following letter to the committee, which speaks for itself:

A. T. Clearwater, Counsellor at Law, Ulster County Savings Bank Building, Kingston, N. Y., May 24, 1929.

To Honorable Edgar J. Dempsey, Mayor, and Honorable James T. O'Reilly, Chairman of the Committee upon the Opening of the City Hall.

In compliance with your wish that I give you a suggestion relative to the course to be pursued upon the city hall being thrown open to public inspection, I beg to say that as the occasion is important, it might seem wise to connect it with the anniversary of some event in the history of Kingston. There are two in the near future: first, the inauguration of George Clinton as the first governor of the state on the 30th day of July, 1777; second, the meeting of the first legislature at Kingston on the 10th of September, 1777. Each was of controlling importance in the history of Kingston, the state and the nation.

A fine feature would be the distribution of a pamphlet briefly reciting the great historical events, with the names of our mayor, the present officers of the city and all of its various boards.

Illustrations hardly are needed, as the publishers of postal cards adequately have supplied not only our own people, but our visitors.

Of late we have devoted so much attention to industrial development that we have overlooked those features which make Kingston not only one of the important cities of the country, but one of the most desirable places of residence. Our location between the Catskills and the Shawangunks, unspoiled scenic beauty of our landscape, our abundant supply of the best water in the land, our historic past with its many heroic associations make Kingston a most desirable place in which to live.

My official connection with the administration of justice as district attorney, county judge, justice of the supreme court, and vice president of the state probate commission during forty years has given me access to statistical information regarding all the municipalities of the United States. Thus I have come to know we have a lofty standard of moral freedom from major crimes, and due to our vigilant and constant bacteriological inspection of water and milk, immunity from disease of epidemic character, and low percentage of adult and particularly infant mortality; with our fine educational facilities, Kingston stands as high, perhaps higher than any municipality of similar population in the land.

In such a pamphlet as I suggest, allusion well might be made to these controlling factors.

The aldermanic chamber is spacious, the large undecorated panel back of the chair of the presiding officer well might contain a tablet containing the various dates of our settlement, the incorporation of the villages of Kingston, Rondout and the city, together with the names of all city officers.

As the building substantially is fire-proof, doubtless it will be used for many generations. The information such a tablet would convey to those following us would be most interesting and valuable.

While we have a super-abundance of oratorical talent, I do not advise addresses, simply throwing the building open to our citizens and their guests, with the distribution of such a pamphlet as here is outlined, amply would be a sufficient observance of the event.

I am, gentlemen, most respectfully,

A. T. CLEARWATER.

NEW PLAN PRESENTED TO REPARATIONS DELEGATES.

Paris, May 27 (P).—Owen D. Young, Sir Josiah Stamp and Emilie Moreau were trying a last remedy on the reparations committee today in the hope of saving it from the failure which has been pending for the past four weeks.

The American expert was negotiating with the creditor delegates on a new combination of the nature of which thus far has been withheld but which is supposed to be quite a new scheme that will get around the conditions opposed by the Germans and the reservations put forward by the Allies.

2226.922 LOW BID FOR PALENTVILLE HIGHWAY.

Collins Brothers of Stillwater, N. Y., were the low bidders, with the figure of $226,922.30 for the Palentville Clove concrete highway, when the bids were opened by the state highway department at Albany Friday afternoon. There was only one other bidder, Major Irving Hule of Saugerties, who named the sum of $234,233.50. The highway is about four miles in length and skirts the mountainside from Palentville to Haines Falls.

At Work Tearing Down Old House Next to Church

Workmen Busy Demolishing Old House Adjoining St. Mary's Church Property—To Make Site a Beauty Spot—May Arrange for Parking Space.

Workmen today commenced the job of tearing down the old two-story frame house adjoining the handsome new rectory of St. Mary's Church on Broadway. The brick house adjoining, formerly occupied as a residence and undertaking parlors by James M. Murphy, will also be demolished. These two properties were purchased by St. Mary's Church some time ago with the idea to remove them and use the site on which they stand to extend the church grounds.

The frame house for many years has been occupied by Patrick Reoney, who has now vacated it. The Rev. Joseph B. Scully of St. Mary's Church stated today that it was planned to beautify the grounds now occupied by the buildings being demolished and in time to fill in the ground in the rear and use it for a parking space for automobiles, which will greatly aid in relieving traffic congestion on Broadway, especially while church services are being held.

The church acquired the property with the idea of removing the houses from the site. At present the full beauty of the grounds surrounding the church and rectory can not be appreciated as the view from the uptown side is completely cut off by the structures that are now to be taken down.

When the work is completed and the grounds graded and landscaped it will be a beauty spot of that portion of Broadway.

Steamship Sinks, 150 Aboard Saved

Seattle, May 27 (P).—The steamship Aleutian struck a projecting rock in Uyak Bay on the jagged coast of Kodiak Island, Alaska, yesterday and sank after 15 passengers and 135 members of the crew had abandoned her and been picked up by the Surveyor, a coast and geodetic survey ship.

The Surveyor with the 150 survivors aboard today was plowing through heavy seas to Seward.

The weather was reported normal at the time of the crash. An S O S was flashed immediately by the stricken vessel. The Surveyor, stationed nearby, rushed to her aid and the survivors were transferred safely within a few hours. Uyak Bay was the last call on the Aleutian's outward trip from Seattle.

The Aleutian, valued at $1,000,000, was regarded as the finest ship in the service of the Alaska Steamship Company. Nearly four months ago she struck a rock in Seymour Narrows, off the British Columbia coast. The two crashes were the first serious ones for Captain John G. Nord, of Seattle, master of the Aleutian, who has seen 30 years of service in Alaskan waters. Dispatches said Nord was expected to try to find the sunken vessel.

ANXIETY FELT FOR EVANGELINE BOOTH.

Hartsdale, N. Y., May 27 (P).—Anxiety was felt in Salvation Army circles today for Miss Evangeline Booth, commander of the Salvation Army in America, who was injured Friday in an automobile accident.

Dr. Walter Clark Tilden, Miss Booth's physician, said he still did not consider her injuries serious, but that her condition was worse and he hoped to have X-rays taken to determine whether she had suffered a skull fracture.

"The concussion symptoms have improved slightly," Dr. Tilden announced, "but there are new evidences of body contusions and increased lameness generally."

Miss Booth was thrown from the rear seat of her car on the way to the Hartsdale station.

GOULD GRANDSON IN SERIOUS CONDITION.

Paris, May 27 (P).—Youthful Prince De Sagan, son of the former Anna Condit of New York, continued today in a serious condition from a bullet wound self-inflicted ten days ago. His physicians, however, expressed themselves as hopeful for his recovery.

The prince wounded himself when his father and mother, the Duke and Duchess De Talleyrand, refused him permission to marry a French girl until he attained his majority. The girl visits him daily at the private hospital.

KING OF ITALY SIGNS TREATIES WITH HOLY SEE.

Rome, May 27 (P).—King Victor Emmanuel III today signed and ratified the Lateran treaties between the Italian government and the Holy See. Only the signature of the Pope is now needed to render the treaties effective and heal the breach that has existed between church and state in Italy since the end of the Vatican's temporal power in 1870.

Charles Connolly Goes to Albany and Gets in Trouble

Overcoat Which He Took from De Witt Lake Park at Bloomington Proves to Be His Undoing in Albany Where He Is Under Arrest.

Charles Connolly, who took the the pledge in Supreme court last week and then received a suspended sentence at Elmira State Reformatory, is in Albany county jail in default of $2,500 bail demanded by United States Commissioner L. T. Hubbard after Connolly had been charged with robbing a mail receptacle at 338 State street on Friday.

Connolly, who appeared in Kingston with a carnival company, attempted to steal a motor truck, was arrested and held for the grand jury. An indictment was found by the May grand jury charging him with attempted grand larceny. On being arraigned before Supreme Court Judge McNamee last week Connolly entered a plea of not guilty and asked that counsel be assigned.

He stated at that time he resided in Newark, N. J., and gave a Broad street address. He also said he was employed in the U. S. Customs office in New York city and explained his presence in Kingston as being due to a two weeks' vacation period. He admitted he was fond of beer and told a pathetic tale of having lost his mother recently.

Moved by his tale of trouble, Judge McNamee assigned Bernard Culliton as counsel to Connolly and later Connolly at the advice of his counsel pleaded guilty and asked for the mercy of the court. His story as given to the court was that he was a high school graduate, had a year in college but when his mother died six months ago he had started drinking beer. This, he said, was the cause of his present troubles and he informed the court that if he were allowed to depart he would never again touch alcoholic beverages. Expressing a willingness to take the pledge, it was administered by the judge and Connolly was paroled to report to Probation Officer Service. That afternoon he was released from jail and the same night he went to DeWitt Lake Park at Bloomington and there became involved in a check transaction. He attempted to pass a check for $4 on the Huguenot National Bank of New Paltz but the check was not cashed. It was signed by John Donnelly. He also departed with the overcoat of another guest.

It was this overcoat which proved to be his undoing. Friday in Albany he went to the tailor shop of S. Bahltz Clapkin to have the coat repaired. It was on a tip from Clapkin that the arrest was made by officer Donnelly of the Albany force.

Connolly gave his name when arrested as Charles Connolly, 21, of Seventeenth street and Fifth avenue, New York.

The tailor said Connolly had brought a coat to be repaired and pointed inquiries he had made regarding check transactions in Albany banks aroused his suspicion. He notified the fourth precinct. When Connolly returned for his coat, Patrolman Donnelly was waiting to question him, after which he was taken to the fourth precinct.

A number of blank checks on the Huguenot National bank of New Paltz was found in his clothing. Four other checks totaling more than $100, drawn on various banks, also were found.

According to police Connolly admitted having stolen an American Express money order from the mail box of Dr. Joseph A. Cox, 338 State street. This admission led police to believe he has robbed other mail boxes.

Federal authorities will confer with Sheriff Rice in regard to disposition of the matter.

ATTEMPT MADE SATURDAY TO STEAL POPPY RECEIPTS

Isaac B. Trowbridge, commander of Joyce-Schrick Post, Veterans of the Colonial Oil station on Clinton avenue, near North Front street, reported to the police department Sunday morning that some time Saturday night an attempt had been made to break into the station and he had found one of the windows partly pried open. Mr. Trowbridge is the owner of a Great Dane and the dog, he became frightened and ran away as nothing was missing. Most of the receipts from the poppy sale of the Veterans of Foreign Wars that had been held Saturday were in the office safe.

Brunette Leads Reno Reform

Obtained Entree to Various Night Clubs and Road Houses by Appearing as Divorce Seeker—Instead, She Sought and Obtained Evidence of Dry Law Violations.

Reno, Nev., May 27 (P).—Night clubs and road houses in and about Reno were in a turmoil today, awaiting the outcome of a prohibition drive staged by a young woman who ostensibly came here to get a divorce and who turned out to be a "contract informer" for the government.

The woman arrived recently and became known in the divorce colony as Billie Rivers. She filed suit for divorce against Dewey Rivers and obtained a decree two weeks ago. She visited most of the night clubs and road houses, some of which have become widely known because of their attraction to those here for "the cure" as divorce action is called.

Billie Rivers obtained entree to the various places by appearing as a divorce seeker. The night clubs and road houses are represented as Reno's facilities for making life as lively as possible for those who come here to establish residence.

The young brunette married Stanley King of Los Angeles several days ago. The next day she went quietly to Carson City and testified before a federal grand jury. Results began to be forthcoming here Saturday, when it became known that 21 persons had been arrested as the result of 17 indictments having been returned against proprietors of the clubs and wayside inns. All the indictments charged violation of the national prohibition law.

Death After Drinking Bout

Yale Student, Fearing Expulsion for Cutting Classes, Goes With Two Other Students to Baltimore—Plunges from Hotel Window.

Baltimore, May 27 (P).—Leigh Miltz Marlow, 21, son of C. Thomas A. Marlow, Helena, Mont., banker and former member of the finance committee of the Republican national committee, died yesterday in an eight-story plunge from a window of the Belvedere Hotel following what is described to police as a drinking party with Robert L. Phillips of Paducah, Ky., a fellow Yale student, and James Mayfield of Alabama.

Phillips told police he, Mayfield, and Marlow had spent several hours drinking and retired early in the morning. Shortly afterward he saw Marlow get up and, clad only in his underclothes, walk to the window and disappear through it. He and Mayfield were held following the tragedy on a charge of violating the Volstead act. They were said to have revealed the name of the person from whom the gin they had drunk was procured.

Phillips also told police Marlow had been drinking heavily during the last several weeks at Yale, and had been warned by the faculty about cutting classes. Last week, Phillips said, Marlow cut a class and, deciding he would be expelled, left school and the two of them came to Baltimore. They had been registered at the Belvedere since Friday.

Memorial Day Program Indoors

Morton Finch, vice-chairman of the Memorial Day committee, asks that all gold star mothers, members of the G. A. R. and disabled veterans occupy seats that will be provided for them on the platform of the high school auditorium during the Memorial Day exercises which will be held there next Thursday morning.

The program committee has a fine Memorial Day program which will be given indoors this year, because it is difficult for a speaker, to talk in the open air, and a great many people find it difficult to stand during the entire exercises. The high school auditorium was therefore selected, where seats will be available for all. The exercises in the auditorium begin immediately after the parade.

Major Hillebrand, grand marshal of the parade, must know at once if any additional organizations wish a place in the parade. The parade orders will be issued Tuesday and those wishing a place in the line of march are asked to communicate with him at once.

Flies Consider Contracts.

Robbins and Kelly planned to rest today and possibly read the many letters of congratulations they have received and also contracts which they had made with various firms for the purchase of the plane. Each of the pilots won $1,100 from several air transport companies and a purse of $15,000 is being raised for them by the Fort Worth Association of Commerce.

Tomorrow they will attend a banquet given in their honor by 1,000 local citizens.

The plane used 1,510 gallons of gasoline on the flight. It is conservatively estimated that it traveled more than 10,000 miles.

Before starting the long sleep they have been looking forward to all week. Robbins and Kelly spoke briefly over the National Broadcasting Company hook-up through WBAP, the Fort Worth Star-Telegram's station.

CORNELL ROSE COMPANY TO HOLD BLOCK PARTY.

Fliers Divide Credit for Record Endurance Flight

Kelly Praises Our Robbins' Ability to Get Most Out of the Motor While Robbins Attributes Large Share of Success to Kelly's Courage—Split Propeller Forces Plane to Earth.

Fort Worth, Texas, May 27 (P).—Having added almost a full day to the world's endurance flight record, R. L. Robbins and James Kelly, who flew the airplane, today while experts made a careful examination of their single-motored monoplane, Fort Worth, which they brought to earth yesterday after soaring almost seven and one-half days.

The two pilots, one an ex-cowboy, the other a former railroad mechanic, added a new line to the illustrious record started by the Wright Brothers' one-minute flight at Kitty Hawk, N. C., in 1903, by keeping the Fort Worth aloft in good and bad weather for 172 hours, 32 minutes and one second. The record beats the mark of 150 hours, 40 minutes and 15 seconds made by the army monoplane Question Mark by 21 hours, 51 minutes and 59 seconds. The army plane had three motors, a crew of five men and an expert ground crew.

Robbins has had six years' experience as a flier, but Kelly came off the range only a year and a half ago. A course in flying which he took technically ended in April, although his skill gave him a job with the Texas Air Transport Corporation long before that time.

The two fliers divided credit for the success of their flight. Kelly pointed out that Robbins' ability to get the most out of the motor without straining it was largely responsible for its performance. Robbins attributed a large share of their success to the courage of Kelly, who frequently crawled all around the hood of the plane to grease the valve rocker arms. The Question Mark was brought to earth by valve trouble.

Slight Accident Forced Plane Down.

It was on one of these trips to grease the valves that Kelly had an accident which eventually forced the plane down. A loose buckle on his safety belt nicked both blades of the propeller. During Saturday night's rain storms moisture penetrated the scar on the blades and caused the propeller to swell and split.

Shortly after noon yesterday the pilot dropped a note saying the propeller was vibrating badly and that they would have to descend soon. They kept the plane in the air, however, until a moment after 4:05 p. m. They decided that the risk of the propeller flying to pieces and perhaps causing them to crash was too great. Robbins made a perfect landing.

Crowd Rushes Special Guard.

The plane scarcely had touched the ground when the enthusiastic crowd, sloshing through mud, was upon it. A fence, a cordon of police and a special guard around the plane, witted before the rush. The special guard was crushed back against the fuselage and the committee of 100 which was to greet the fliers had to take its turn with the other spectators. Some semblance of order finally was obtained and Mrs. Robbins and Mrs. Kelly, a bride of a few weeks, were carried to the plane over the heads of the crowd.

Police and volunteers fought the crowd back inch by inch as the plane was brought up to the line. The jam in front of it was so tight that many women lost their shoes, and went home with their hose and dresses covered with mud.

The fliers had very little to say. They were slightly deaf and contended themselves for the most part with grinning happily at the news reel cameras and the crowd.

Fliers Consider Contracts.

Robbins and Kelly planned to rest today and possibly read the many letters of congratulations they have received and also contracts which they had made with various firms for the purchase of the plane. Each of the pilots won $1,100 from several air transport companies and a purse of $15,000 is being raised for them by the Fort Worth Association of Commerce.

LAST NIGHT on the RADIO

Whenever and wherever there was freedom from local interference on Sunday reception was extremely good. WNAC was one of the best stations heard.

Talks by Miss Clatsenore Stinnes, daughter of the late Hugo Stinnes, noted German industrialist, and C. A. Soderstrom, Swedish sportsman, who are on the last lap of an automobile trip around the world, will feature the Mobil Oil Hour the night of May 29 over WEA and twenty-one associated National Broadcasting Company stations. They will describe the highlights of their experiences which range from a narrow escape from a desperate army of Chinese bandits to becoming lost in the Andes and being forced to drink the water in the radiator of their car.

The ups and downs of "The Elevator Man," as described by Percy Hemus, end-man, is one of the features of the show to be presented by the Dutch Masters Minstrels through WJZ and associated NBC stations on Tuesday, June 4, at 9:30 p. m.

A series of episodes in the lives of "The Potters," that characteristic American family generally described as "just folks," will begin over WJZ Tuesday evening, June 4, at 9 o'clock. Every succeeding Tuesday night at that hour a national chain of stations will be connected with WEA to broadcast this Broadway program. Written by J. P. Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

(By The Associated Press.)

New York—There are expectations that another Barrymore star will twinkle on the stage in a few years. One family tradition already is being followed by Ethel Barrymore, who will be graduated next week from the convent of Notre Dame at Weyland, Mass. Valley, Pa. as her mother, Ethel Barrymore, and her grandmother, George Fiske.

Albany, N. Y.—New York state is having some $1,500 stamps made. Each sheet of stock changing hands, is taxed two cents. There have been some big dealings that even the largest denomination $100 note, $100 stamp, causes a lot of bother.

New York—"Edison, Miraclemaster," is the title of a new song by George M. Cohan, written in honor of the forthcoming 50th anniversary of incandescent light. George once went to school in Orange, N. J. It is announced the song is not to be put on sale.

Boston—Cardinal O'Connell is aroused by styles and cosmetics. At a woman's confirmation service he denounced the "scandalous" and "nasty habit of immoral dress and painting." Costumes which would have been based of the stage not many years ago, he said, are worn on the streets today.

New York—Harry Luft, 19, who could tow automobiles with his teeth or one finger and bend iron bars or tear thick telephone books, is dead of an organic disease. He lived on vegetables. Those with callisthenics and will power he was wont to give as the reasons for his strength.

Berkeley, Cal.—Ann, Emily and Frances are likely to be popular for girls' names shortly. Professor George R. Stewart, Jr., so deduces from a study of cycles of popularity. These names are unduly depressed in the graphs at present.

New York—Milton Tettebaum, three years old, is a prodigy maestro. He gave a piano recital as part of a home talent concert program in a hotel ballroom. He plays by ear entirely. Given a cue by a few notes on a violin, he rendered most any popular piece. For encores he turned somersaults on the carpet.

EAST KINGSTON.

East Kingston, May 27—The trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church here met with their friends Sunday evening and arranged the following program for their "Clean Up Social," Saturday, June 1: Graville Rider, assisted by Julius Chalk, and others, will rebuild the staircase leading to basement of the church, repair window and door of anti-room. Earl Rider, assisted by James Saunders and others, will remove stove in the auditorium and reclaim benches in the two choir robing rooms. C. L. Saunders, Sr., will have charge of the chimney cleaning and assist his son in repairing the ceiling in lower anti-room. Harold Pratt will be his right hand man. John Peck will oversee the repairing of the roof while Robert Baines will have charge of the outside work. The Ladies Aid Society are to clean the building and their program includes the oiling of the floors. Frank Riddle will move the Sunday school paraphernalia upstairs. Charles L. Saunders will take charge of all repairing and was elected purchasing agent. William Pratt, who is chairman of the board of trustees, is the recognized leader of the "Clean Up Social."

Friends of Charles Smith will be interested to know that he spends some of his time sitting up in a chair now and is feeling better every day.

Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock the young men are to meet at the M. E. Church for the purpose of organizing a Young Men's Athletic Club.

Next Sunday the Rev. Dr. Bond is expected to be here and the official members of the church are requesting all members to be present with their friends.

Mrs. V. Wagar has charge of the Children's Day exercises for June 9. A very interesting program is being arranged.

week was but a temporary condition from which she should be fully recovered.

Maverick School Of the Theatre

Open at Woodstock July 1
Under Same Management as The Maverick Theatre, but Students
Will Not Play in Latter Place.

A practical school of the theatre is open in the Maverick Colony on July 1. It will offer two months' experience in all branches of the theatre under the supervision of a body of well-known professionals.
Though the Maverick Theatre and School of the Theatre are under the same management, their only connection is that some of the professional actors will teach in the school and students will have the great advantage of attending all rehearsals and seeing the work of a producing company. The Maverick School is the first summer school that can offer a professional contact.

The faculty is a distinguished one,
and in that each member is well known in the New York theatre.
Miss Kossloff, member of The Imperial Russian Ballet and now of The Metropolitan Opera Co., will teach acting. Windsor P. Daggett will teach the voice and diction department. Mr. Daggett is the author of a diction on the American stage.
He is a large school in New York and will lecture at the Maverick frequently. The daily voice classes will be taught by Florence Goddard, his assistant. E. J. Ballantine, who has acted with John and Lionel Barrymore and with Granville Barker in England, will teach classical drama.
Miss Ann Baker, a well-known actress and director, will produce modern plays in the school and Allen
Lano will have a class in playwrit-
ing. A lecture course includes Leo Slavov of The Moscow Art Theatre, Grant Allen, English author and producer, and Dudley Digges of the New York Theatre Guild. Scenery and costume design will be taught by Ed Reber and Ian Wolfe.
At the close of the season there will be an outdoor student production of a famous classical play to which the public will be invited. Students enrolling from all over the country. The directors have had requests for their catalogue from every state in the union. Hervey White, founder of the colony which is already famous for its painters and musicians, has arranged to build more cottages in June to accommodate the large number of students who are expected. A few students will be accepted, those interested should apply to the secretary for details.

They will be offered in exquisite color combinations which have been scientifically developed with a view to serviceability.

Announcing production schedules for 120,000 Hudson and Essex cars during the second quarter and predicting that earnings for that period would far exceed any previous quarter in the company's history. Bearing in mind Lindbergh's famous flight that was negotiated with nothing more elaborate than a school boy's pocket map, the Tide Water Oil Company has just issued the first of a series of "aiders" and motorists' "road maps" called "Tydol Trails." No. 1 in the series covers the states of Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and New Jersey. Tydol Trails map No. 1 not only covers the territory from Lake Erie to Washington and from Pittsburgh to Philadelphia, but presents enlargements of the principal cities—Baltimore, Newark, Washington, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

BEAUTY CONTEST WINNER AT BROADWAY THEATRE

Tonight is the night that Miss Beatrice Fitzgerald will make her personal appearance at the Broadway Theatre at the nine o'clock performance. Miss Fitzgerald is the young lady who won the beauty contest at the Broadway Theatre a few weeks ago against 30 other contestants. She will leave Kingston on Thursday morning by automobile for Schenectady, N. Y., where she will represent Miss Kingston in the State Beauty Pageant to be held there, the winner of which will be sent to Galveston, Texas, to compete for the title of Miss Universe against 40 other countries. Miss Fitzgerald is hoping to be sent to Galveston to represent Kingston. She will also appear on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at 9 o'clock. The photoplay for tonight is the great jazz revue, singing, talking and dancing with Charles Buddy Rogers and Nancy Carroll. This great picture made a decided hit Sunday evening.

"WOODSTOCK BULLETIN" TO BE PUBLISHED AGAIN

Woodstock, May 27—With the opening of the season for the Woodstock Art Colony, there are a great many artists, writers, musicians and actors flocking back again to their rustic haunts for the summer. Among the season activities to be resumed is "The Woodstock Bulletin," a publication launched last year by F. Gardner Clough to keep the many part-time residents of Woodstock acquainted with the local doings in the fine arts and social circles of the colony.

Mr. Clough will be assisted this year by William H. Bunning of Columbia University, New York city. Mr. Bunning has already taken up residence at Woodstock; he enters the field after a successful experience on western newspapers and as a student at Columbia University.

The Woodstock Bulletin will resume its fortnightly issues beginning June 1 and be continued throughout the year.

Kingston Tourists In St. Petersburg

St. Petersburg, Fla., Mar. 27 (Special)—This city will bring its greatest season to a close with the end of this month, when the last of the tourists will start off on the homeward trek following the sunset and the happiest "winter" in the history of the resort. Every state in the union, every Canadian province and 24 foreign nations were represented here among the 199,000 vacationists who were entertained from October through to June. This unprecedented rush is attributed to the automobile and the excellent improvement of all highways leading from the east and the middle west into Florida's gulf coast section, fully 100,000 of that estimated number of sojourners coming into the Sunshine City by motor car.

At the Chamber of Commerce, 45 Kingston residents registered their names and addresses for the season, most of them having returned to the North. Many own their own winter homes in St. Petersburg, and will return here earlier next fall. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Peter A. Black, 1 Main street; Miss Frances Busnell, 151 Albany avenue; Mrs. Daniel B. Deyo, C. W. Dennis, 299 Clinton avenue; Alex D. Ferguson, Miss Ella W. Freer, Mrs. Adeloid L. Freer, 151 Albany avenue; Mr. and Mrs. George T. Freer, Mr. and Mrs. William Hazard, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hendricks, 103 Albany avenue; Mr. and Mrs. N. Hogeboom, Miss Jane Hogeboom, 149 Main street; Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Jennings, 159 Pearl street; Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Johnston, 219 Washington avenue; Miss Dorothy Kennedy, 138 St. James street; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Koch, 326 Albany avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Austin R. Newcombe, Manor Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ramsey, 349 Albany avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo K. Rose, 155 North Manor avenue; Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Rose, 87 Green street; Mr. and Mrs. Irving J. Rose, 69 Clinton avenue; Miss Mildred E. Rose, 155 North Manor avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Sickles, 29 Pine street; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Southard, 116 Henry street; Mr. and Mrs. David Terry, Mr. and Mrs. A. Weber, 98 Grand street.

THANKS PUBLIC FOR HELP ON POPPY DAY.

On behalf of Kingston Post of the American Legion I wish to extend this expression of thanks and gratitude to the citizens of Kingston for the continuation of their loyal support and splendid cooperation on Poppy Day.

We wish also cordially to thank all those who so unselfishly helped to make the campaign the overwhelming success that it was and whose assistance will help provide relief for the disabled and distressed World War veterans, his wife and family, throughout the coming year.

Just as soon as complete returns are in from the outlying districts, a full report of the proceeds will be made to the press. And, in a few months, when the treasurer of the American Legion renders his annual report, the American Legion will make a public accounting, through the press, of the proceeds of last year's poppy campaign.

EDWARD J. HILLIS,
Chairman,
American Legion Poppy Committee.

THIS WEEK'S ACTIVITIES AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock a very special and important meeting of the Parish Aid Society will be held at the home of Mrs. Williams Carter.

Thursday, Holy Communion, 10 a. m., in the church.

Forsyth Park Evangelistic Meetings.

There will be evangelistic meetings at Forsyth Park on Memorial Day at 10:30 a. m., 2:30 p. m., and 7:30 p. m. The Rev. Mr. Haulenbeck of Brooklyn, who has been an evangelist for 10 years, will conduct the meetings. He will be assisted by the Rev. David H. Keeler of Cliftondale. He will also bring some of his orchestra from Brooklyn to help with the music. Those who desire may bring their lunches. All are welcome.

Important Notice about your TELEPHONE SERVICE

The reduced rates on evening and night calls between Fleischmanns, Haines Falls, Palenville, Phoenicia, Pine Hill, Tannersville and New York City will be suspended from MAY 25 to SEPTEMBER 10. The day rate will apply throughout the 24 hours.

THIS plan was instituted for the first time during the summer of 1928 and effected a very marked improvement in the toll service to New York as compared with the preceding years.

The problem of handling a very large volume of traffic during a short summer season at the majority of seasonal resorts becomes increasingly difficult each year despite the expenditure of hundreds of thousands of dollars for new equipment. It is further aggravated by the fact that an unusually high percentage of these calls is made after 8:30 P. M. wherever the discounted rates apply. The elimination of the discounts is an effort to distribute calls more evenly through the day in order to help us give better service on these calls.

We feel that the public looks to us primarily to furnish fast, reliable telephone service. The elimination of the reduced rates during the summer months will relieve a condition that has made it impracticable to render the kind of service that you wish to receive and which we wish to furnish.

Keeping the Home Cool and Comfortable

AFTER all there can be no better place to enjoy the summer months than right in one's own home. Nowhere else can you be so thoroughly at home—more luxuriously at ease—surrounded by all the familiar comforts of your own rooms and beds and chairs and lounging clothes. Even the resorts that try to woo you from your home make much of the appeal that they are "home-like."

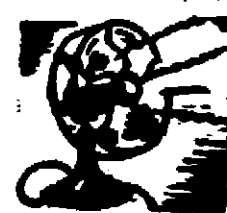

But truly is no place like home—especially when you can make it such a place of cool and restful charm through all the warmest days with such convenient aids to comfort as screens and awnings, porch shades, and furniture for porch and shady lawn; electric fans and ranges, and fireless cookers; ice cream freezers, fruit juice extractors, food drink sets; bathroom showers—and all the many other aids a store like this can offer.

Resort to Your Own Home for a Summer Resort.

You know how good it always is to get back home from some long summer trip or stay at some resort. For a lot less than you would spend on such a trip you can make your home beat any resort for downright summer rest.

Week's Program At the Y.W.C.A.

Following is the program for the week of May 27-June 1 at the Y. W. C. A.

Badminton will be held on Monday night at 7:15 for the Industrial Girls and on Wednesday evening that and bridge for the Business Girls, at the same hour. During the summer, while there will be no regular plans for the Business Girls, there will be some activity every Wednesday evening beginning at 7:15. All business girls of the club or not, are urged to come to the Y, get acquainted with the girls and be ready for the fall activities. Miss Herdman is ready to give tennis instruction and hours for the same will be announced shortly.

Tuesday evening, May 28, will be the last swimming night at the Y. M. C. A. for the "Y" girls. The Thursday morning class will be omitted on account of Memorial day activities. The classes in swimming will be resumed October 1.

On Thursday the Girls Reserves of the city are planning to march in the Memorial Day parade. All girls who can arrange to be present are asked Concert and House Work.

There will be a concert and roast pork dinner at the Emanuel Baptist Church, 151 East Union street, on Tuesday evening, May 28, under the auspices of the Pastor's Aid Club. Dinner will be served from 5:30 until 7:30. There will be a play with singing by the Silver Tone Quartet of Virginia.

Fish Fearful and Curious
The gorgeously-colored sea-bottom gardens are far from sunless. There usually is enough light to take photographs and sometimes the sunlight is sufficiently intense on the sea bottoms for the fish to cast shadows. The fish themselves show a curious mingling of fear and curiosity at the presence of man.

"Asceticism"
The doctrine that the carnal or material world is evil or despicable and that salvation is to be obtained by mortification of the flesh is known as "asceticism."

Monster With Almost Human Head Found.

Paris.—A strange monster with an "almost human" head, which was killed in the Venezuelan jungles ten years ago, was described by Dr. Georges Montandon, noted French scientist, in a paper read before the members of the French Anthropological Institute. Photographs of the monster were projected on a screen. The animal was described as having 32 teeth, no tail and being about the size of a large man.

The photograph, according to the scientist, revealed an unknown anthropoid, akin to the orang-outang species but closely resembling the Neanderthal man.

Doctor Montandon placed particular emphasis in his lecture on the size of the animal, saying it was much larger than the Atele apes which it resembles in some ways and larger than any anthropoid species ever found in Latin-America. This fact alone, he said, made the discovery of outstanding importance.

The scientist's paper told how the monster was killed by Francois De Lays, a French geologist and friend of Doctor Montandon, who penetrated unexplored depths of the Venezuelan jungle on a scientific expedition. One day, while seated in a temporary camp with a companion, the geologist heard a crashing in the branches of nearby trees.

A moment later two ape-like creatures jumped down into the camp clearing, waving their hairy arms. The two men fired and one animal fell.

The geologist immediately propped up the dead animal and photographed it at close range. He attempted to preserve the body or head but, owing to grave danger which overlooked the party, was forced to abandon everything but his records in a notebook and the photograph.

A copy of the notes and the photograph were sent to Doctor Montandon, who said he had made extensive studies of the subject and hoped that an expedition could be formed to search the area where the animal was killed. He said hope of forming such an expedition was the cause of his silence on the subject in the past, but now he would be pleased if others undertook the journey.

Holds Burial Service Over Amputated Limb

Warsaw.—All Warsaw has been startled by the recent "funeral" ceremony conducted in connection with the burial of the amputated leg of a seventy-year-old Jew, Chl. Weinberg, who was himself the most interested spectator. The old man was so grateful for the success of the operation for the removal of his limb, that he did not wish the amputated member to be destroyed, but instead, preserved it in alcohol. After several months in the hospital, where the leg was also kept, Weinberg was able to leave for his home.

He had not forgotten the leg, however, and a few days later arrived to convey it from the hospital to the Jewish cemetery, where a grave had been prepared. In the cemetery office where a special tub had been prepared, the limb was taken from alcohol, washed in accordance with Jewish rites, enveloped in white linen, placed upon a miniature bier, and covered with a black cloth.

The funeral procession then proceeded towards that part of the cemetery consecrated to the Weinberg family, where the leg was interred, the funeral oration being delivered by Weinberg himself, who praised the lost limb for its endurance, as well as its sturdy resistance to cold and gout.

Federal Prisoners to Learn Modern Farming

Washington.—Uncle Sam is out to make "scientific farmers" of federal prisoners.

Those assigned to farm work, under Department of Justice plans, will be given "a course equivalent to a short course in an agricultural college."

Plans for this and for development of farms connected with the prisons have been discussed by prison, Department of Agriculture and bureau of education officials. It is proposed to obtain assistance of county agents and co-operation of land grant colleges, the department said.

Chemist Figures Out Weight of One Hair

Seattle, Wash.—Albert Jacobson, city chemist, has a pair of new scales and here are a few of the calculations he has worked out with his latest plaything:

A strand of human hair long enough to encircle the world at the equator would weigh 750 pounds.

The ordinary domestic variety of pin weighs .0007975 ounce.

The ordinary 2-cent postage stamp is lighter than the smallest stamp, the weights respectively being .01297124 ounce and .0005 ounce.

The ordinary human hair, one inch long, weighs .00002 gram or .0000000003 ounce.

A NEW SIX AT A PRICE WITHIN THE REACH OF MILLIONS

On Saturday, Buick will present the new Marquette—designed by Buick engineers and built in Buick factories. Marketed as an additional member of the Buick family, it will in no way affect Buick itself. Buick will continue to express the policies that made it the leader of the fine car field for the past quarter-century. In the smart, comfortable bodies of the Marquette you will recognize the fine hand of Fisher design. In its balance and poise you will see experienced engineering. And in performance—that final standard by which all cars are judged—you will find the Marquette leading its price class by an impressive margin. Be on hand when this eventful new car is shown Saturday. See what a remarkable new automobile Buick has produced at a price within the reach of millions.

Man's Need of Salt
Man, like all animals, needs salt (sodium chloride) physiologically. For his taste for salt is an acquired habit. Cannibals, Eskimos and other cannibals, too, use salt. Like dogs, cats, locusts, birds, they get their requisite sodium chloride from the food they eat raw, or roasted. (Bottled fish loses its salt). Most men, however, are omnivorous. The salt they get from fish, fruit and meat is too little for bodily needs.—Time.

ELEANOR GUNN ON FASHIONS

THE SCARF DRESS AND THE URGE FOR A STRAW HAT—

New York.—The small woman is fortunate in many ways, among which may be mentioned the fact that she can more readily have smart scarf frocks. For a few years past it has been the interesting habit of dress and blouse makers to fashion models from gay printed silk scarfs. The border effects of such scarfs are of course an added attraction, although as time wore on it came to pass that prints, bought by the yard also had borders.

The spectator type of sports frock, always soft and feminine is often made of two large scarfs, a charming example of this arrangement being to accept the scarf by having skirt and collar knotted as one usually knots a handkerchief.

The news from smart resorts is that sports clothes are confined to active participants of events, the gallery appearing in flatter types only slightly acknowledging the sports influence. Many, most one might better say, of such dresses are sleeveless, a quality they have in common

OUR DAILY PATTERNS.

A Dainty Party Frock for the Growing Girl.

6062. Crepe de chine in pale pink or yellow will be lovely for this model. Graceful flounces form the skirt. The back extends over the front to meet the V neck in pointed shoulder extensions. The dress is sleeveless, cool and attractive. A ribbon sash tied in loops and ends at the center of the front holds the fullness at low waist line. Printed georgette with pipings of crepe or georgette in a plain color is nice, as is also China silk in white or a pastel shade.

The pattern for this dainty model is cut in 4 sizes: 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. To make the dress for a 12 year size will require 4 1/2 yards of 39 inch material. A ribbon sash requires 2 3/4 yards.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 12c in coin or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Kingston, N. Y. Be sure to state the size wanted.

Fighting Fire in Home

In case a fire starts in a room, close all doors and windows to prevent a draft. Give the alarm promptly. A few pails of water thrown on at first may do more good than thousands of gallons later. A blaze may often be smothered with a rug or blanket. If the clothes catch fire, lay the patient flat on the floor at once; running about fans the flames, which tend to burn upward toward the face. Smother the flames with a heavy coat, rug or blanket, if water is not at hand.

Watermarks in Paper

Watermarks in paper have been used for a long time to lend distinction to the product of a particular paper maker and for other purposes. One of the oldest, a circle surmounted by a tall cross, is found in documents dating back to the fourteenth century. Other old marks are the fleur-de-lis, the court jester, the huntsman's horn, the hand pointing to a five-pointed star and the tankard, well known in papers of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries.

She Put A Million Wives Into Pretty Clothes

Nelly Don Proved Lovely Bright-Colored Frocks as Practical as the Old-Fashioned Drab Ones

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Nelly Don hated drab house dresses. So she made gay ones—only a few at first. They sold amazingly. Now her business totals $2,000,000 a year.

In spite of hard wear, they are practical, she finds. Because with modern Lux cleaning they wear and wear!

"The very best way to wash the lovely, bright colored materials we use," Nelly Don says, "is with Lux. Lux has no harmful alkali and with Lux there is no rubbing."

NELLY DON

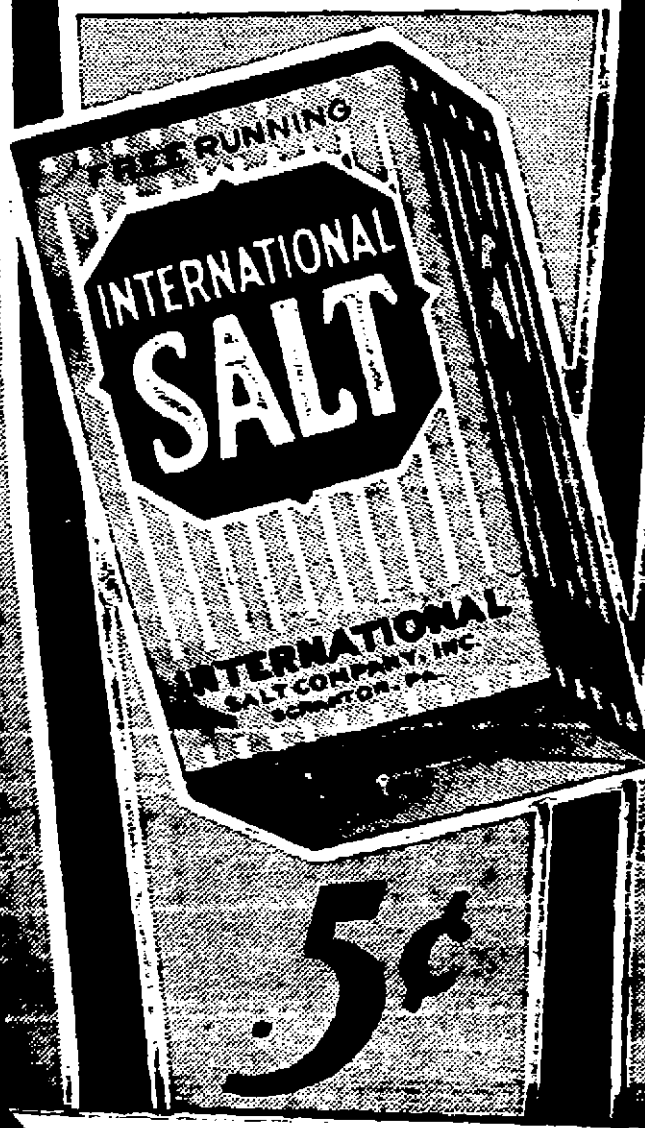

No matter how delicate a color or pattern, it can be washed in Lux time after time—often for years—and still look just like new.

Damp days or dry days this salt is just the same!

The remedy is an extraordinary salt—International Salt. It just won't get hard—anywhere—any time. It will stay forever fine and free—on the dealer's shelves or in your dining-room. It's guaranteed!

More than that, International Salt is the cleanest, purest salt that can be made. It is the product of the world's largest salt manufacturer. A big blue-and-gray box costs only a nickel at your grocer's. Ask for it today.

with sports clothes, of the more workmanlike type. Plaids, polka dots, stripes and checks are numbered among the desirable patterns for summer frocks whether they be cotton, silk or linen, and that they are likely to be cotton and linen everyone must surely realize. While one is content, and perhaps something more than content with a felt hat as an accompaniment for the crepe frock, there seems to be a rather natural urge for the old time combination of cotton or linen with straw. 'Straw' hats are quite as numerous as felt ones, which many believe is what should be in the good old summer time.

Virgin Gold

In an unknown cave on the Auckland Islands lie the remains of a ship which contained more than $10,000,000 worth of virgin gold and nuggets. Some seventy years ago she sailed from Melbourne, loaded with miners returning with their gold from Ballarat.

Beached among the islands, a current drifted her into a great cave. Her masts, striking the roof, were driven through the hull and she sank. A few survivors reached the coast of New Zealand, but no search has yet discovered the cave in which lies the hull of this valuable treasure ship.

Her Place in the Sun

She lay lifeless, a mere shattered torso. Her beautiful vacant eyes stared calmly at you; even yet the flawless waves struck to her golden hair. Her facial beauty was ruined; her lovely cheeks had slid down into her neck, and there they were in chunks. But still the light was in her eyes; she'd met her destruction bravely, and never squinted once.

"We'll need a new comby," said the hairdresser, looking at the short window the storm had blown in.

Baby Pageant Headquarters

Excelsior Hose Company announces that the headquarters of its Baby Pageant is now officially open, at 35 John street, this city, from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. daily. Crowds have already been attracted by the unique window displays showing hundreds of baby photographs, a number of which are prize winners throughout the United States and Canada.

The public is invited to visit the clinic and the nurse in charge will be pleased to conduct visitors through it and explain any part of the pageant to those interested.

On another page in this paper will be found an official entry blank which must be used by those interested in entering babies.

A loving cup will be presented at the close of the pageant to the baby being the first to be registered for examination in the 100 per cent perfect baby contest.

The clinic is equipped throughout with the most modern clinical appliances. The babies are examined under the strictest sanitary conditions, under the rules and regulations of the American Medical Association. One room is set aside for Sunray treatment, the Eveready Sun Ray Lamp being used by the physicians for the treatment of rickets and malnutrition, as well as other children's ailments.

In the course of a few days the windows of the headquarters will be filled with loving cups that will be presented to the various winners.

This is the first baby pageant ever presented in this section of the country and Excelsior Hose Company is sparing no expense to make it one of the largest events ever attempted.

Many other novel and interesting features will be presented, consisting of an Industrious Boy election and the selection of Kingston's Favorite Daughter.

WEATHER DATA KEPT BY NATURE FOR CENTURIES

Only Recently Man Has Learned to Read Records Shown in the Calendar.

Washington.—Man has been keeping constant weather records for only a few generations, but far back in the days when carefree hunters roamed in Europe weather records were nevertheless kept. They were kept on a natural calendar, which men have learned how to read only during the last few years.

This was one of the points developed at the meeting of the American Geographical Union here recently, in a survey of weather-keeping devices and methods by C. F. Marvin and A. J. Henry of the United States weather bureau. The natural weather record of Stone age days consists of certain deposits of very fine-grained clays, called "varve clays." They were laid down by streams pouring from the melting glaciers into lakes and ponds, bearing loads of silt which they dropped when they flowed into still water.

When the streams were swollen, as in spring, they carried heavier particles, making a coarse layer; in late summer, when they were not so high, the particles they carried were finer, making a closer-grained layer on the bottom. Each year is represented by one of these composite layers, grading from coarse in the spring to fine grained in the fall.

Naturally, a year of heavy rains would build a thicker layer than a year of drought when the streams flowed thin and clear, so that it is possible by counting back on those sheets of varve clays to tell what the weather was like 10,001 or 10,002 years ago, almost as well as though it were only one or two years ago. The varve clays have shown that the last of the glaciers in northern Europe melted about 6,500 B. C.

A second kind of natural weather record has been found in the annual rings of California big trees and other old trees.

Although these records are not nearly so old as those written in the clays, they carry the weather reports back beyond the beginning of the Christian era, telling of years of rain or years of drought and fire by the thickness of the annual layer of wood laid down in their trunks.

Grandma Holds Daily

Tea Party for 60 Years

Lorain, Ohio.—Mrs. Amelia C. Faragher, eighty-six, has the unique record of being hostess at a tea party at her home here every day for the past 60 years.

Morning visitors at "Grandma" Faragher's home will find her diligently tending her large tea kettle. She is always prepared to entertain guests—from three to twenty—who drop in for a brief conversation and to inquire regarding her health.

The custom was begun by Mrs. Faragher's husband, three score years ago, in the same little farmhouse where "Grandma" now lives. He used to come in from the field in the middle of the morning and spend a half hour or so sipping the drink for which his widow has become famous.

After Faragher died, the daily tea party was continued by their children and grandchildren who grew up into the privilege of "tea at Gram's."

Bobby Baker, one of Mrs. Faragher's little grandchildren, has been punctual at the traditional social event for four years. He is six years old. For a while Bobby couldn't understand why his teacher refused to excuse him so he wouldn't be late at "Gram's" for tea.

Mrs. Faragher is an ideal hostess. An interesting conversationalist, she discourses on a variety of subjects and is careful not to bore her guests with inconsequential matters.

The weather may be inclement, storms may blow, rain or shine—it doesn't matter—because "Grandma" Faragher says she plans to continue her tea parties for at least ten more years.

Pan-Ams Blank Koenig All-Stars

The Pan-Ams chalked up their fourth straight win of the season by defeating the Koenig All-Stars, 9-0, in the Sangerite road diamond Sunday afternoon. Jackson proved to be a batting monarch, allowing the Koenig Kids but six hits. The Pan-Ams touched Canis and Van Buren in 13 safeties.

Three tallies were gleaned by the Pan-Ams in the first inning when Hoffman doubled, Merritt singled and Cragan got a pass. In the third inning Lay singled and Jackson drove them home when he cleared the path for a double. The fourth brought the Pan-Ams another tally. Tettery singled and was driven home by Celuch's three bagger. Although the triple gave the all-star a run, it proved costly to Celuch for he sprained his ankle while venturing from third to home and had to leave the game. It was in this same inning that Lay made one of the best catches ever seen at the field and made a double play that prevented what might have been a Mandy Kid sporting rally.

A run in the sixth and two more in the eighth gave the Pan-Ams their total of nine.

The all-star will meet the Albany Crescents at the Sangerite road diamond on Memorial Day. Lefty Harrington is scheduled to do the "Albany" twirling with Welsh behind the bat.

Tagging Major League Bases

By William J. Chipman

Associated Press Sports Writer

If the American League only were composed of just the Senators and the Athletics, life would be nothing but a long, sweet dream for the hirings of Prof. Cornelius McGillicuddy. The aspiring Mackmen have played at a .550 clip against the other six clubs, but have averaged a near .923 against Walter Johnson's entry, which many picked to win the National pennant. Their record is thirteen out of twenty against the league in general, twelve out of thirteen against their Washington cousin.

The Athletics shifted the scene to the Capital City yesterday to shade the Senators' 4 to 3 for the eleventh straight Philadelphia victory, size of which have been at the expense of the selfsame Senators. Walter Johnson's men took hope when they routed old Jack Quinn in the sixth and led by 3 to 1. But in the very next round Garland Braxton weakened under the strain of carrying the load and the Mack men were ahead, 4 to 3; before Fred Marberry could apply the brakes. Eddie Rommel, slasher extraordinaire, held the edge to the end.

The victory maintained the Athletics comfortably ahead of their field, four games in front of the Browns, who shaded Cleveland by 1 to 0, and five and one-half to the fore of the Yankees and the Tigers, who rested in a virtual tie for third place. Old Red Faber applied the one-hit treatment to the Tigers in Chicago to win by 2 to 0 as the Yankees went on a spree in Boston to halt the Red Sox by 15 to 4.

Babe Ruth's ninth home run was the crowning blow in a sixteen-hit assault which the champions showered upon Ed Morris, Ed Durham, Ed Carroll, Billy Bayne and Jack Russell. Walter Hoyt was doing very well with the New York pitching until he became involved in a heated debate with Mr. Richard Nallin, the umpire. In the interest of the Hoyt batting average, which is .207, Mr. Nallin, of course, won the argument by a unanimous vote, cast by Mr. Nallin himself, and Master Hoyt spent the rest of the afternoon in the clubhouse wondering whether he would get credit for the pitching victory, which he did.

The game marked the first appearance of the Yankees upon Braves Field, which the Red Sox use for Sunday games because of its advantage over the Fenway in seating capacity. Rip Collins scattered seven Indian hits to win over Willis Hudlin by 1 to 0 on only five safe blows by his St. Louis comrades. Blue's double and Manush's single in the eighth settled the argument, leaving the Browns in a threatening position.

The Pirates definitely inserted themselves into the National League fight for the moment at any event, by taking both ends of a double-header from the Cardinals at Sportsman's Park. The scores were 12 to 8 and 7 to 6, with Burleigh Grimes stampeding to the aid of faltering pitchers in each engagement. The Cubs, aided by a Hornsby home run, had little difficulty in turning back the Reds by 5 to 1 at Chicago.

Sunday results in the National League left the Cubs leading the Cardinals by a margin of one full game, represented by a difference of two in the losing column—this in spite of two defeats in three days for the Bruins in St. Louis. The Pirates rested only one and one-half games behind the Cubs, half a game to the rear of the champion Cardinals. The rest of the league remained below the .500-mark, despite the fifth successive victory of the Giants, who stopped the Braves by 15 to 8 at the Polo Grounds.

The Robins completed the National League program by cleaning up their straight over the Phillies, 5 to 4.

Pioneer Vets. Hold Reunion

Officers Elected by F Company, 51st Pioneer, at Annual Meeting at Fortin's Inn—Interesting Program of Entertainment Given.

The annual reunion of F Company, 51st Pioneer, was held Sunday at Fortin's Inn on the Ashokan boulevard, where the World War veterans enjoyed a fine chicken dinner, put up by the proprietor, Enrico Radaldi, who is a member of the Pioneers, and then elected officers for the ensuing year.

Officers are: President, Martin Mooney; first vice president, Al Salzman; second vice president, George Planthaber; secretary, Eugene Cornwell; treasurer, Peter Keresman; sergeant-at-arms, Vernon Huston; historian, Gordon Van Kleeck. After officers were elected the Pioneers and guests, among whom was Mayor Edgar J. Dempsey, sat down to the delicious chicken dinner which they had ever tasted. There was no drawback, however, as the mayor was called away before the dinner was over and thus missed a good time which the Pioneers had prepared for him.

It was with much regret that he left, but before his departure he expressed hearty thanks for the hospitality he had received. The mayor was a busy man Sunday, having attended several other events, including the services at Kingston Point for deceased veterans and the opening of the Colonial baseball season, previous to the Pioneers' dinner.

Gift for Mayor Dempsey. At the F 51 dinner, Peter Keresman, treasurer and a member of the Kingston police force, presented the mayor with a gold knife, bearing the shield of the New York State Patrolmen's Benevolent Association, the head of which asked the local officer to give it to him. The mayor proudly displayed the gift and asked Mr. Keresman to thank the patrolmen's association for their kindness.

When the dinner was over there was a social time held by the Pioneers. They talked over old times and recalled the many humorous incidents of army life. A feature of the social was the singing of Benjamin Bleitchofer, who made a big hit with his tenor solos.

As is the custom every year prizes were awarded to those at the dinner. Those who received them were Al Salzman, first; E. Gregory, second; and Gordon Van Kleeck, the booby prize.

Retiring President Edward J. Wortman was presented with a pair of gold cuff links for his interest in the organization during his term of office.

The Pioneers left at a late hour well satisfied with the time spent at Fortin's Inn and resolving not to miss the regimental reunion to be held in Kingston this summer. This will bring together all the companies of the 51st Pioneers and promises to be a gala event.
